

You are invited to the next GAIN Webinar on...

THE RELEVANCE OF COP24 CLIMATE NEGOTIATIONS FOR RESEARCH AND VICE VERSA

PRESENTING

The New Climate Economy (2018): Unlocking the inclusive growth story of the 21st century: accelerating climate action in urgent times

Tuesday 29, January 2019 | 4 pm (CET, UTC+1)

Learning Outcomes

- How do climate negotiations affect research agenda and how relevant is research and economic modelling for guiding climate negotiations?
- Which were the main outcomes of the COP24 climate summit?
- What are the economic and employment implications of a '21st Century Growth' based on a sustainable development path?

Speakers

 Helen Mountford, Vice President for Climate and Economics at the World Resource Institute and Program Director for the New Climate Economy (NCE) project.

 William Kojo Agyemang-Bonsu, Manager for Mitigation and Transparency Support Sub-programme of the UNFCCC Secretariat.

In order to attend: register here. thereafter we will send you the link to access the session. Open the link on the date and time of the Webinar. For any questions, contact greenjobs@ilo.org.