WHAT

This course is designed to develop your holistic understanding of managing vocational training centres, with sessions on:

- Strategic management of vocational training centres
- Responsiveness of vocational training centres to labour market demand
- Public-private partnerships (PPP) and the relationship between vocational training centres and industry
- Financial sustainability of vocational training centres: autonomy and self-financing

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

By the end of the programme, you will have enhanced your technical knowledge to improve the functioning of vocational training centres. Specifically, you will have:

- Increased your understanding of management concepts by examining the management of vocational training centres from a quality-based perspective
- Examined the management challenges related to vocational training centres
- Developed an in-depth understanding of the role of vocational training centres in skills development, the assessment and recognition of skills, and the transition from school to work

WHAT WILL I BE ABLE TO DO?

You will be connected to an international network of skills development professionals. You will enhance your ability to analyse and manage vocational training centres by:

- Correctly identifying bottlenecks and challenges at the centres
- Recognizing the key factors that enable centres to respond to labour market demands
- Drawing strategic development plans for vocational training centres
- Strengthening the economic model of the centres by assessing the services and products that can be provided to the labour market

WHY

WHY SHOULD I REGISTER?

During the distant learning phase, the course focuses on understanding the conceptual framework of managing vocational training centres.

In the subsequent face-to-face phase, participants apply theoretical knowledge gained earlier to develop practical management skills. They engage in collaboration and discussions with experts during in-person sessions and through planned group work activities.
